

The Janesville Daily Gazette

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1888.

Published Every Evening, Except Sunday, at $1.00 a Year.

NUMBER 216

VOLUME 32

Entered at the Post Office at Janesville, Wis., as second-class matter.

THE GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15.

STATE OF WISCONSIN.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

BY THE GOVERNOR.

For the blessings of health, peace and prosperity accorded to the people of Wisconsin the past year, and for the progress made in all that contributes to advance our material and moral welfare, it is fitting that we should reverently return thanks unto Almighty God.

Now, therefore, I, Jonathan M. Bush, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, conforming to the proclamation of the president of the United States, do hereby say, as of day of Thanksgiving and peace, and I recommend that on that day the people of Wisconsin abstain from labor, and, meeting in their places of worship, give thanks to the Supreme Ruler for his kindness and mercy, and that the poor be generously remembered.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1888.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the capital, in Great Seal Madison, this 15th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

J. M. BUSH.

By the governor:

George G. Thorne, Secretary of State.

BEGINNING TO SEE THE LIGHT.

A great many reasons are being given for the defeat of Mr. Cleveland. The Republicans have theirs, and the Democrats have theirs. The republican reasons, (1) that Cleveland's vanity, egotism and ingratitude, drove many democrats from him; (2) that he never redeemed a single pledge he made in 1884; (3) that he was as low in partisanship as the democratic party; and (4) that he was bold in preparing the way for free trade, do not seem to be accepted by the democrats; and they even get aid when republican papers won't accept it. Curtis' idea that Cleveland in spirit is the greatest reformer of the times. But the New York paper which above all others—the Post—stood for Cleveland through thick and thin, in season and out of season, improves the opportunity of printing from one of its mugwump correspondents an article which gives some of the reasons why Cleveland was defeated. The facts that the article was written by a supporter of Cleveland, and printed in an administration paper, should cause it to have some weight among democrats who have not yet got their eyes open to the truth. The mugwump says:

Is there not a general disappointment not to say indignation, that the executive, so zealous against a surplus, and so valiant for tariff reform, has lamentably failed to advance a reformation most imperatively needed, and for which he had given pledges? If sincere his purposes have not been weak and irresolute in making them effectual? * * * Exaggerated as that campaign document of the Tribune was, to the world's disgrace, of course it was not a fact, and as far as it was in many respects, it had such a measure of fact to support its charges that it has been unanswered and terribly fatal against Mr. Cleveland's continuance in office. The vigilantes who seek office only for prey tell that the good old times were to be kept up, when workers at the polls could obtain office by right.

These reasons, if they do appear in a democratic paper and were written by a Cleveland supporter, do not materially differ with the reasons already given in the Gazette and other papers.

The democratic party made no progress toward reform or anything else commendable, while it has been in power. It was burdened with its own weight, and Cleveland added still more to the burden the party was compelled to carry.

THE END OF THE MUGWUMP.

The mugwump is peculiar to the east, just like the seventeen year locust is to the west. But while the locust will baffle now and then, the mugwump has babbled up twice only, and now disappears from American politics. The disappearance of the eastern mugwump since the late election has moved the New York Sun to sing a beautiful and touching song which filly commemoates that event:

Who is it that's been set upon and dropped with such a sickening thud? Who is it that's called Dennis, and likewise Mr. Mad? Who is it that sits in Salt River his lily swelled head? Who is it that is dead then the dodo is buried? Who is it that is badly off his feed and off his chump? Who is it that is busted? The poor, forlorn Mugwump!

One he held his head up proudly, waddled stately as a goose; Said politics must learn his way or he would raise the deuce; Strutted, bellowed, boasted, bragged; With a check that never ached and a tongue that never was flogged; Raved and ranted like a maniac, barked as vicious as a mule; Sure that he alone was good enough to give the country rule.

Round the wheels of politics he buzzed, though far from dy. Thought the root and very linchpin of the world was his. Said I; Thought that he could smash machines up, make or purr the finest plates. Eat up or down at his sweet will all kinds of dainties. Use the parties as his plaything, be the general Grand Mogul! But the people's ass straight through him, knew him for an aardvark.

By and by a long good-bye to this little tin god on wheels; As the people put him away how his face and noseches and wiggles; Good-bye to the owl-like face and the long jacks of ears. Good-bye to the monstrous mouth and the eye that lies and leers; Good-bye to an utter absence, good-bye to a total chump, Good-bye and good-bye forever to the poor little torn Mugwump!

THE CABINET'S BAD LUOOG.

Mr. Cleveland is certainly in hard luck. His cabinet has gone back on him. He thought they had some influence. He found out they have none. He sent them home during the election to sheer for the administration. They returned to Washington shore. They departed from Washington puffed up in spirit, and two of them, marshaled westward with that proud tread which they hoped would make the people see that two conquering heroes were coming. But they returned to their departments broken in spirit, disappointed in their ambition, aged and worn in their appearance, and wrecked in all their hopes.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

Friends of the treasury and Whitney of the navy, were ordered to carry New York, but New York would not be carried in that way, and so the Empire state gave its electoral vote to Harrison. Even Secretary Endicott's state, Massachusetts, would not harken to his appeal in behalf of his master, and there likewise an increased republican majority was given. And Secretary Bayard came near losing his own state, and Arkansas has rightfully elected two republican congressmen.

It will be seen that the state of each cabinet officer increased its republican vote very largely. No wonder the cabinet dread the next meeting. Their influence has departed.

The cost of a presidential campaign is enormous. Men not only lose millions of dollars in fees, and hundreds of thousands more are spent in providing for the election in large cities, but the cost to the commerce of the country is something astonishing. The New York Herald prints the view of the prominent business of the country on the question. In nearly every instance bankers, brokers and estate and other business men favor prolonging the term of the presidency. It is said by those competent to form an estimate that shrinkage in the internal commerce and industries of the United States in the last four months, which can be traced to apprehension, excitement, and other conditions dependent upon the presidential campaign, amounts to not less than $300,000,000. This is not a guess, but is an estimate made by several eminent observers, one of whom is Chauncey M. Depew.

Mr. Depew reckons the internal business of the country for four months at about $5,000,000,000, and is satisfied that there has been a loss of 10 per cent during the four months of the National contest. That is what it costs to hold a presidential election, outside of the immense sums spent directly in politics. Other estimates on the loss of business are even higher than those of Mr. Depew. In almost every instance the remedy suggested in the prolongation of the presidential term to six years and making a man ineligible for re-election.

There is a general disappointment not to say indignation, that the executive, so zealous against a surplus, and so valiant for tariff reform, has lamentably failed to advance a reformation most imperatively needed, and for which he had given pledges? If sincere his purposes have not been weak and irresolute in making them effectual? * * * Exaggerated as that campaign document of the Tribune was, to the world's disgrace, of course it was not a fact, and as far as it was in many respects, it had such a measure of fact to support its charges that it has been unanswered and terribly fatal against Mr. Cleveland's continuance in office. The vigilantes who seek office only for prey tell that the good old times were to be kept up, when workers at the polls could obtain office by right.

These reasons, if they do appear in a democratic paper and were written by a Cleveland supporter, do not materially differ with the reasons already given in the Gazette and other papers.

The democratic party made no progress toward reform or anything else commendable, while it has been in power. It was burdened with its own weight, and Cleveland added still more to the burden the party was compelled to carry.

THE END OF THE MUGWUMP.

The mugwump is peculiar to the east, just like the seventeen year locust is to the west. But while the locust will baffle now and then, the mugwump has babbled up twice only, and now disappears from American politics. The disappearance of the eastern mugwump since the late election has moved the New York Sun to sing a beautiful and touching song which filly commemoates that event:

Who is it that's been set upon and dropped with such a sickening thud? Who is it that's called Dennis, and likewise Mr. Mad? Who is it that sits in Salt River his lily swelled head? Who is it that is dead then the dodo is buried? Who is it that is badly off his feed and off his chump? Who is it that is busted? The poor, forlorn Mugwump!

One he held his head up proudly, waddled stately as a goose; Said politics must learn his way or he would raise the deuce; Strutted, bellowed, boasted, bragged; With a check that never ached and a tongue that never was flogged; Raved and ranted like a maniac, barked as vicious as a mule; Sure that he alone was good enough to give the country rule.

Round the wheels of politics he buzzed, though far from dy. Thought the root and very linchpin of the world was his. Said I; Thought that he could smash machines up, make or purr the finest plates. Eat up or down at his sweet will all kinds of dainties. Use the parties as his plaything, be the general Grand Mogul! But the people's ass straight through him, knew him for an aardvark.

By and by a long good-bye to this little tin god on wheels; As the people put him away how his face and noseches and wiggles; Good-bye to the owl-like face and the long jacks of ears. Good-bye to the monstrous mouth and the eye that lies and leers; Good-bye to an utter absence, good-bye to a total chump, Good-bye and good-bye forever to the poor little torn Mugwump!

The cabinet's bad luog.

Mr. Cleveland is certainly in hard luck. His cabinet has gone back on him. He thought they had some influence. He found out they have none. He sent them home during the election to sheer for the administration. They returned to Washington shore. They departed from Washington puffed up in spirit, and two of them, marshaled westward with that proud tread which they hoped would make the people see that two conquering heroes were coming. But they returned to their departments broken in spirit, disappointed in their ambition, aged and worn in their appearance, and wrecked in all their hopes.

S. W. Cox, a good Methodist and temperance man, of New York, tells what the members of the secession party have done. He says: "They have placed the state of New York in the hands of Hell, and the devil." Brother Cox seems to have a perfectly clear understanding of the situation.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the republican majorities. Dickinson was sent to Michigan to deliver that state over to his lord, but lost the tricks of the administration and the personal influence of the postmaster general, availed nothing, and Michigan rebuked Dickinson and his master by giving a large republican majority.

The chief who is an arrogant man, demanded much of his cabinet ministers. He wanted Vilas to carry Wisconsin, and Vilas said he could. But his state, and even his own county, gave increased support to the

St. Jacobs Oil CURES NEURALGIA LUMBAR & BACKACHE HEADACHE & TOOTHACHE SCIATICA PROMPTLY AND PERMANENTLY BRUDGISTS AND DEALERS EVERYWHERE THE CHAS AVOCER CO BALD-MO

THE GAZETTE.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15

PUBLISHED BY THE GAZETTE PRINTING COMPANY OF JANESVILLE, WIS. THE GAZETTE COMPANY IS THE ONLY PAPER IN JANESVILLE WHICH PAYS CASH IN ADVANCE.

150 CENTS CASH IN ADVANCE.

NICHOLAS SMITH
PRESIDENT.

SECRETARY AND MANAGER.

WM. BLADON
CITY EDITOR.

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE OF REPUBLICANS.

CLUBS.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., NOV. 15.—The National League of Republicans of Minneapolis, which has not surrendered its grip on politics with the election of a new president, The organization is to be kept vigorously in the field.

To carry out this plan a National convention of the club is to be held in New York, December 19. Each State League is to be entitled to four delegates in the convention.

The purpose of the session is to formulate plans to carry on the work of the league in the future.

THE "SPURS-EXPRESS."

New York, Nov. 15.—The speakers and managers whose exertions helped to win the recent Republican National victory, and who are now dubbed "the Spurts," participated in a banquet at Delmonico's Wednesday evening, at which nearly every Republican of note in this vicinity was present, and many in other localities were represented by letters or telegrams of regret. Among the latter was President-elect Harrison, who telegraphed his thanks.

He is said to decline your invitation to attend the dinner at Delmonico's given to the Republican campaign speakers. I can not imagine where the speakers are to be found in this hour of great campaign orators. The speakers and advocates of the cause of the Republicans were worthy of the cause.

Vice-President-elect Morton wrote:

"I am with extreme regret that I have to inform you of my inability to be present at the banquet given to the speakers of the campaign.

It is my intention to show them in the most cordial manner that the people in which they set before the people the principles adopted by our convention at Chicago has not been won over to the cause.

It is my opinion that the cause of the Republicans has been maintained in the large measure of success, especially in New York State, over which we are now all rejoicing together. It would give me great pleasure to express to you the hearty congratulations of the people of New York on their victory.

It is my opinion that the Republicans were worthy of the cause of the campaign.

EDWIN F. CARPENTER,
Attorney at Law,
Leppin's Block,
JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN.

REAL ESTATE BROKER.

Makes all papers relating to real estate.

HOUSES, LOTS, LAND AND WESTERN LANDS, for sale and exchange. OFFICE OVER Post Office, JANESVILLE, WIS.

D. CONGER,
WILSON LANE,
Attorney at Law,
JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN.

EDWIN F. CARPENTER,
Attorney at Law,
Leppin's Block,
JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN.

REAL ESTATE AND LOAN AGENT.

NOTARY PUBLIC. Conveyancing, Deeds, Notes
and Mortgages Negotiated. General Cleaning Agency. Rent houses, office, etc. On order, any kind of house, office, etc. Smith's block
Money to lend at 6 percent.

Any person having business in the line can
say to me, "I want to sell my house or real estate
any business with any Ins. Co. or real estate Agent in Smith's Block.

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN.

S. P. HOSKINS,
Fire, Auto Life and Accident Insurance
REAL ESTATE AND LOAN AGENT.

NOTARY PUBLIC. Conveyancing, Deeds, Notes
and Mortgages Negotiated. General Cleaning Agency. Rent houses, office, etc. On
order, any kind of house, office, etc. Smith's block
Money to lend at 6 percent.

Any person having business in the line can
say to me, "I want to sell my house or real estate
any business with any Ins. Co. or real estate Agent in Smith's Block.

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN.

S. H. HAYNER,
Resident Piano Tuner
AND
TEACHER OF VIOLIN AND VIOLA.

Twenty years' experience. Best of reference and satisfaction guaranteed. Address or consult book at King & Sibley's.

ED. Order book at King & Sibley's.

THE HOME
Life Insurance Company,
OF NEW YORK.

Cash Assets $5,600,000.00
Liabilities $4,239,231.14

POLICY HOLDERS SURPLUS $1,381,865.00

The Home offers you the best and cheapest protection than any one of 20 largest life insurance companies in America.

For Southern Wisconsin, No. 8 Leland's block, Janesville, Wis. Inbaldway.

ARCHITECTS.

Conover & Porter.

Plans and Superintendence Office.

PIONEER BLOCK — MADISON, WIS.

For Janesville, on Saturday.

APRIL 1.

Real Estate, Insurance
AND LOAN AGENCY

OF J. G. SAXE,

Is now prepared to buy and sell Farm and Western lands, Houses and Lots and Businesses. And will give you better bargains than in the northward. And money loans at 6 percent. & Co.

GENERAL HARRISON UNREST.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—The Indianapolis correspondent of the New York Tribune tele-
graphs that the following:

"General Harrison is daily growing more
anxious about the complexion of the next
few days of his administration, and his anxiety
has taken the form of personal tele-
grams to several of the disputed districts asking for information. The telegrams have below: 'Please advise me
that the Republicans will be so small that it
will be decided upon, especially for a tariff
bill. But it is not the coming tariff bill which is the point to which General Harrison is chiefly directing his efforts, but the
tariff bill he fears that he will not be able to effect the admission of the new States into the Union, and upon those admissions he has set his heart. Out of the General's house come the words: 'I am a General, General J. S. Jackson, President
of the Republic, State League; H. C. Thurber, Jacob Hess, Colonel Samuel Tull, Colonel V. R. Cruger
C. C. Shayne, Colonel Fred Grant and
John F. Plummer.'

GENERAL HARRISON UNREST.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—The Indianapolis cor-
respondent of the New York Tribune tele-
graphs that the following:

"General Harrison is daily growing more
anxious about the complexion of the next
few days of his administration, and his anxiety
has taken the form of personal tele-
grams to several of the disputed districts asking for information. The tele-
grams have below: 'Please advise me
that the Republicans will be so small that it
will be decided upon, especially for a tariff
bill. But it is not the coming tariff bill which is the point to which General Harrison is
chiefly directing his efforts, but the
tariff bill he fears that he will not
be able to effect the admission of the
new States into the Union, and upon those admissions he has set his heart. Out of the General's house come the words: 'I am a
General, General J. S. Jackson, President
of the Republic, State League; H. C. Thurber, Jacob Hess, Col-
onel Samuel Tull, Colonel V. R. Cruger
C. C. Shayne, Colonel Fred Grant and
John F. Plummer.'

GENERAL HARRISON UNREST.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—The Indianapolis cor-
respondent of the New York Tribune tele-
graphs that the following:

"General Harrison is daily growing more
anxious about the complexion of the next
few days of his administration, and his anxiety
has taken the form of personal tele-
grams to several of the disputed districts asking for information. The tele-
grams have below: 'Please advise me
that the Republicans will be so small that it
will be decided upon, especially for a tariff
bill. But it is not the coming tariff bill which is the point to which General Harrison is
chiefly directing his efforts, but the
tariff bill he fears that he will not
be able to effect the admission of the
new States into the Union, and upon those admissions he has set his heart. Out of the General's house come the words: 'I am a
General, General J. S. Jackson, President
of the Republic, State League; H. C. Thurber, Jacob Hess, Col-
onel Samuel Tull, Colonel V. R. Cruger
C. C. Shayne, Colonel Fred Grant and
John F. Plummer.'

GENERAL HARRISON UNREST.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—The Indianapolis cor-
respondent of the New York Tribune tele-
graphs that the following:

"General Harrison is daily growing more
anxious about the complexion of the next
few days of his administration, and his anxiety
has taken the form of personal tele-
grams to several of the disputed districts asking for information. The tele-
grams have below: 'Please advise me
that the Republicans will be so small that it
will be decided upon, especially for a tariff
bill. But it is not the coming tariff bill which is the point to which General Harrison is
chiefly directing his efforts, but the
tariff bill he fears that he will not
be able to effect the admission of the
new States into the Union, and upon those admissions he has set his heart. Out of the General's house come the words: 'I am a
General, General J. S. Jackson, President
of the Republic, State League; H. C. Thurber, Jacob Hess, Col-
onel Samuel Tull, Colonel V. R. Cruger
C. C. Shayne, Colonel Fred Grant and
John F. Plummer.'

GENERAL HARRISON UNREST.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—The Indianapolis cor-
respondent of the New York Tribune tele-
graphs that the following:

"General Harrison is daily growing more
anxious about the complexion of the next
few days of his administration, and his anxiety
has taken the form of personal tele-
grams to several of the disputed districts asking for information. The tele-
grams have below: 'Please advise me
that the Republicans will be so small that it
will be decided upon, especially for a tariff
bill. But it is not the coming tariff bill which is the point to which General Harrison is
chiefly directing his efforts, but the
tariff bill he fears that he will not
be able to effect the admission of the
new States into the Union, and upon those admissions he has set his heart. Out of the General's house come the words: 'I am a
General, General J. S. Jackson, President
of the Republic, State League; H. C. Thurber, Jacob Hess, Col-
onel Samuel Tull, Colonel V. R. Cruger
C. C. Shayne, Colonel Fred Grant and
John F. Plummer.'

GENERAL HARRISON UNREST.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—The Indianapolis cor-
respondent of the New York Tribune tele-
graphs that the following:

"General Harrison is daily growing more
anxious about the complexion of the next
few days of his administration, and his anxiety
has taken the form of personal tele-
grams to several of the disputed districts asking for information. The tele-
grams have below: 'Please advise me
that the Republicans will be so small that it
will be decided upon, especially for a tariff
bill. But it is not the coming tariff bill which is the point to which General Harrison is
chiefly directing his efforts, but the
tariff bill he fears that he will not
be able to effect the admission of the
new States into the Union, and upon those admissions he has set his heart. Out of the General's house come the words: 'I am a
General, General J. S. Jackson, President
of the Republic, State League; H. C. Thurber, Jacob Hess, Col-
onel Samuel Tull, Colonel V. R. Cruger
C. C. Shayne, Colonel Fred Grant and
John F. Plummer.'

GENERAL HARRISON UNREST.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—The Indianapolis cor-
respondent of the New York Tribune tele-
graphs that the following:

"General Harrison is daily growing more
anxious about the complexion of the next
few days of his administration, and his anxiety
has taken the form of personal tele-
grams to several of the disputed districts asking for information. The tele-
grams have below: 'Please advise me
that the Republicans will be so small that it
will be decided upon, especially for a tariff
bill. But it is not the coming tariff bill which is the point to which General Harrison is
chiefly directing his efforts, but the
tariff bill he fears that he will not
be able to effect the admission of the
new States into the Union, and upon those admissions he has set his heart. Out of the General's house come the words: 'I am a
General, General J. S. Jackson, President
of the Republic, State League; H. C. Thurber, Jacob Hess, Col-
onel Samuel Tull, Colonel V. R. Cruger
C. C. Shayne, Colonel Fred Grant and
John F. Plummer.'

GENERAL HARRISON UNREST.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—The Indianapolis cor-
respondent of the New York Tribune tele-
graphs that the following:

"General Harrison is daily growing more
anxious about the complexion of the next
few days of his administration, and his anxiety
has taken the form of personal tele-
grams to several of the disputed districts asking for information. The tele-
grams have below: 'Please advise me
that the Republicans will be so small that it
will be decided upon, especially for a tariff
bill. But it is not the coming tariff bill which is the point to which General Harrison is
chiefly directing his efforts, but the
tariff bill he fears that he will not
be able to effect the admission of the
new States into the Union, and upon those admissions he has set his heart. Out of the General's house come the words: 'I am a
General, General J. S. Jackson, President
of the Republic, State League; H. C. Thurber, Jacob Hess, Col-
onel Samuel Tull, Colonel V. R. Cruger
C. C. Shayne, Colonel Fred Grant and
John F. Plummer.'

GENERAL HARRISON UNREST.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—The Indianapolis cor-
respondent of the New York Tribune tele-
graphs that the following:

"General Harrison is daily growing more
anxious about the complexion of the next
few days of his administration, and his anxiety
has taken the form of personal tele-
grams to several of the disputed districts asking for information. The tele-
grams have below: 'Please advise me
that the Republicans will be so small that it
will be decided upon, especially for a tariff
bill. But it is not the coming tariff bill which is the point to which General Harrison is
chiefly directing his efforts, but the
tariff bill he fears that he will not
be able to effect the admission of the
new States into the Union, and upon those admissions he has set his heart. Out of the General's house come the words: 'I am a
General, General J. S. Jackson, President
of the Republic, State League; H. C. Thurber, Jacob Hess, Col-
onel Samuel Tull, Colonel V. R. Cruger
C. C. Shayne, Colonel Fred Grant and
John F. Plummer.'

GENERAL HARRISON UNREST.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—The Indianapolis cor-
respondent of the New York Tribune tele-
graphs that the following:

"General Harrison is daily growing more
anxious about the complexion of the next
few days of his administration, and his anxiety
has taken the form of personal tele-
grams to several of the disputed districts asking for information. The tele-
grams have below: 'Please advise me
that the Republicans will be so small that it
will be decided upon, especially for a tariff
bill. But it is not the coming tariff bill which is the point to which General Harrison is
chiefly directing his efforts, but the
tariff bill he fears that he will not
be able to effect the admission of the
new States into the Union, and upon those admissions he has set his heart. Out of the General's house come the words: 'I am a
General, General J. S. Jackson, President
of the Republic, State League; H. C. Thurber, Jacob Hess, Col-
onel Samuel Tull, Colonel V. R. Cruger
C. C. Shayne, Colonel Fred Grant and
John F. Plummer.'

GENERAL HARRISON UNREST.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—The Indianapolis cor-
respondent of the New York Tribune tele-
graphs that the following:

"General Harrison is daily growing more
anxious about the complexion of the next
few days of his administration, and his anxiety
has taken the form of personal tele-
grams to several of the disputed districts asking for information. The tele-
grams have below: 'Please advise me
that the Republicans will be so small that it
will be decided upon, especially for a tariff
bill. But it is not the coming tariff bill which is the point to which General Harrison is
chiefly directing his efforts, but the
tariff bill he fears that he will not
be able to effect the admission of the
new States into the Union, and upon those admissions he has set his heart. Out of the General's house come the words: 'I am a
General, General J. S. Jackson, President
of the Republic, State League; H. C. Thurber, Jacob Hess, Col-
onel Samuel Tull, Colonel V. R. Cruger
C. C. Shayne, Colonel Fred Grant and
John F. Plummer.'

GENERAL HARRISON UNREST.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—The Indianapolis cor-
respondent of the New York Tribune tele-
graphs that the following:

"General Harrison is daily growing more
anxious about the complexion of the next
few days of his administration, and his anxiety
has taken the form of personal tele-
grams to several of the disputed districts asking for information. The tele-
grams have below: 'Please advise me
that the Republicans will be so small that it
will be decided upon, especially for a tariff
bill. But it is not the coming tariff bill which is the point to which General Harrison is
chiefly directing his efforts, but the
tariff bill he fears that he will not
be able to effect the admission of the
new States into the Union, and upon those admissions he has set his heart. Out of the General's house come the words: 'I am a
General, General J. S. Jackson, President
of the Republic, State League; H. C. Thurber, Jacob Hess, Col-
onel Samuel Tull, Colonel V. R. Cruger
C. C. Shayne, Colonel Fred Grant and
John F. Plummer.'

THE GAZETTE.

THE OFFICIAL CITY PAPER.

EVERAGE CIRCULATION OF DAILY AND WEEKLY 8,150.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15.

LOC. 11. M. T. T. & Co.

Money to loan on acceptable terms.

C. E. BOWLES.

LOST—Duff, cuff button and cuff fastener. Please leave at this office.

FOR RENT—Three unfurnished rooms suitable for two persons. $5. Prospect avenue.

Don't miss Bort, Bailey & Co.'s cloak exhibit and special sale Friday.

To RENT—A large, well lighted room, second story front, in Norcross block. Inquire at Janesville Steam Laundry or of P. N. Noncones.

We will show you more different styles of garments than ever before displayed in Janesville at our cloak exhibit and special sale Friday. Bort, Bailey & Co.

FOR RENT—House and barn in good repair, No. 12 Conrad's Row, Milton Avenue. C. E. CONRAD.

We will make extraordinary low prices on cloaks Friday.

BORT, BAILEY & CO.

LIVERY STABLE FOR SALE—at a bargain well located and doing a good business. Owner wishes to leave town. Barn rent low. All stock first class. Call and go figure. D. CONGER.

Read Bort, Bailey & Co's cloak ad. in this issue.

Call on C. E. Bowles for particulars of a special bargain in real estate, that for good reasons cannot be made public.

A golden opportunity to buy a cloak cheap and get just the style you want at Bort, Bailey & Co's Friday.

Auction Sale.

At the Richard Dovar farm in Plymouth Rock Co., Wis.

The east half of the southeast quarter of section number four (4), the east half of the northeast quarter of section number nine (9), and the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section number three (3), all in township number two (2) north, of range number eleven (11) east, together with the appurtenances thereto belonging, will be sold at public auction to the highest bidder on Friday the 30th day of November, A. D. 1885, at the hour of ten o'clock a. m. of that day, on the sidewalk in front of the Rock County National Bank, Janesville, Wisconsin. Those who desire a good farm will take notice.

If you want the latest style cloak and want it different from any you will find on the street, call at our store Friday, we will display over four hundred styles.

BORT, BAILEY & CO.

COAL—I never was known to allow any one to lead me in prices on coal or wood. Call at my office and get prices on coal or wood or anything I handle.

J. H. GATELEY.

We have a large stock of Ladies' Children's and Gent's underwear. Our prices are the lowest. Quality as good as there is made. Give us a call. The Fair, No. 13 North Main street.

Ladies' lace lined overcoats made by the celebrated Woonsocket Rubber Co., at the extremely low price of 50 cents. You will find all of our prices very low.

BROWN BROS.

A block walnut, marble top, bed room suit, also another lot of those beautiful Silver Oak, coal and wood heaters at Sanborn's store and Furniture store, North Main Street.

Excellent line of hanging lamps from $2.00 up at Wheelock's. Printed dinner sets, $10.00; chamber sets, $2.00 up.

No. 2 Chestnut, or in other words plain piano; all you want for $5.00 per ton at J. H. Gateley's.

Ladies' rubbers only 25 cents at Brown Bros. Splendid weavers. Misses and children's the same price in heel and sprin.

Bread 5 and ten cents per loaf; 15 ten cent tickets for $1.00 at J. A. Dennis-ton's.

Florida oranges at Dennis-ton's. Try a basket of the new importation uncolored Japan to at Dennis-ton's.

Those elegant reindeer panels, a beautiful sitting room ornament, are going very rapidly. Only a few hundred left. Every customer of the Milwaukee Clothing Company receives one free.

Buy your books where can get the best assortment of reliable goods to choose from at the lowest prices on record.

RICHARDSON'S SHOE CO.

We back up all our offers and that's why we are sold with the public.

ARCHIE REID.

Furs—Black mink good at 50 cents; seal, monkey, opossum, martin, lynx, and other furs at Archie Reid's.

Orders for window shades, any size and color, taken at King & Kelly's bookstore.

Would be competitors "leaders" can be had of us at our usual 20 per cent discount from their prices.

RICHARDSON'S SHOE CO.

One only large Jewett Refrigerator left at Wheelock's to close out at cost.

The largest stock of blank books with diaries for 1889 at Satherland's bookstore.

We are making a great record in the way of selling cloaks. ARCHIE REID.

Elegant display of all the latest novelties in millinery, feathers, birds and wings at Archie Reid's millinery department.

A nice line of bibles and prayer book at King & Kelly's bookstore.

Boy's rubber boots for $1.50 at Brown Bros'; Misses rubber boots for $1.25 at Brown Bros'; Ladies' rubber boots for $1.00 at Brown Bros'; Children's rubber boots for $1.00 at Brown Bros'.

Buy your boy's and children's clothing of the Milwaukee Clothing Company and save money.

An avalanche of fall novelties in our millinery department. ARCHIE REID.

Boy's and children's suits at prices that will please you, at Zeigler's.

Handkerchiefs, new, elegant and cheap at Archie Reid's.

THE COUNTY BOARD.

No Action in Regard to the Johnstown Poor-House Yet Taken.

Unpaid Tramp Claims Before the Board—McNamara Must Pay Board.

What was expected to be the last day's session of the county board was held today. The question of a new location for the county poor house was taken up at the morning session.

The committee's report in the winter included a list of fourteen farms, more than half of which were pronounced good locations. The Brady farm and adjoining tract—244 acres, including twenty acres of wood land near Milton at $2,000—and the Henderson farm—365 acres including thirty acres of wood land, situated midway between Belmont and Janesville—were especially recommended as sites which possess advantages and advantages superior to the others. The committee was given further time to investigate.

In the matter of John McNamara the "rich pauper" it was ordered that the said McNamara pay to the county house during the past five years fifty dollars a year, and that the balance of the claimant's money be paid back.

The first part of the afternoon session was taken up by a discussion of whether county officers' bills for trial of "vagrants," scaled down on the ground that the prisoners committed as "tramps" should be paid in full or not.

CHIEFLY.

The militia drill this evening. Put up your horns and buzz saws.

J. B. Gile went to Milwaukee this afternoon.

Well, the campaign of 1888 is over now for business.

Tickets for Vanderdecken can be procured at Palmer & Stevens'.

Edie Ellister is to appear at the opera house in "Judge Not" to-morrow evening.

Miss Marie Colvin, who has been visiting Chicago friends, has returned home.

Seats for Vanderdecken reserved at Prentiss and Emerson's without extra charge.

Charles D. Houston has been appointed postmaster at Johnstown vice Joseph C. Light, resigned.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Jenkins have returned home from Boscobel where they have been visiting Mr. Jenkins' parents.

The W. C. T. U. convention now in session at Cannon's hall will adjourn at 5 o'clock this afternoon until 9 a. m. to-morrow.

Janesville Chapter No. 5 Royal Arch Masons, assemble in regular semi-monthly convocation this evening at Mason's hall.

The meeting of the Women's Suffrage Association will be postponed until next week, Friday, on account of the W. C. T. U. convention.

On Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Cannon's hall, Miss Clara Hoffman, of Kenosha City, will deliver an address on "Modern Idiots." All are invited.

Next Monday, November 18th, is the time for the payment of monthly dues in the Building, Loan and Savings Association. Stockholders will make a note of the fact and save up their checks.

A party of Dakota Indians in full native costume were in the city a short time last evening. They were on their way to Bismarck, after a visit to Washington to arrange matters concerning the reservation.

The statement of the Recorder that the county board ordered the illumination of the court house, sprung from a vivid imagination. No such order was adopted, and the paragraph from beginning to end is without foundation.

A special meeting of the Traveling Men's Association will be held at the Grand hotel Saturday evening, Nov. 17, at 8 o'clock, to complete arrangements for the annual banquet. Every member is requested to be present.

C. B. Evans, President.

A gang of hoodlums destroyed a number of trees on North Bluff street last evening. A young lady witnessed the whole affair and some of the youngsters are known, and unless restriction is made they will be prosecuted to the full extent.

District Chief Templar W. G. Palmer and Mr. A. J. Window went to Madison to-day, where they will attend a meeting of the District Lodge, I. O. T. which convenes in that city to-day and to-morrow. They will represent People's Lodge, No. 460 Independent Order Good Templars, of this city.

Buy your books where can get the best assortment of reliable goods to choose from at the lowest prices on record.

RICHARDSON'S SHOE CO.

We back up all our offers and that's why we are sold with the public.

ARCHIE REID.

Furs—Black mink good at 50 cents; seal, monkey, opossum, martin, lynx, and other furs at Archie Reid's.

Orders for window shades, any size and color, taken at King & Kelly's bookstore.

Would be competitors "leaders" can be had of us at our usual 20 per cent discount from their prices.

RICHARDSON'S SHOE CO.

One only large Jewett Refrigerator left at Wheelock's to close out at cost.

The largest stock of blank books with diaries for 1889 at Satherland's bookstore.

We are making a great record in the way of selling cloaks. ARCHIE REID.

Elegant display of all the latest novelties in millinery, feathers, birds and wings at Archie Reid's millinery department.

A nice line of bibles and prayer book at King & Kelly's bookstore.

Boy's rubber boots for $1.50 at Brown Bros'; Misses rubber boots for $1.25 at Brown Bros'; Ladies' rubber boots for $1.00 at Brown Bros'; Children's rubber boots for $1.00 at Brown Bros'.

Buy your boy's and children's clothing of the Milwaukee Clothing Company and save money.

An avalanche of fall novelties in our millinery department. ARCHIE REID.

Boy's and children's suits at prices that will please you, at Zeigler's.

Handkerchiefs, new, elegant and cheap at Archie Reid's.

THE WEATHER.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 39 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with south wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 39 degrees above zero. Cloudy with northwest wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the thermometer was 40 and 49 degrees above zero.

The Secret Out at Last.

Miss Helen Magnet at last discovered what met this evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crane, Center avenue, fifth ward, and for an hour and a half will study Emerson's essay on "Friendship." Miss Maud Crane will present an essay on the same theme to be followed by conversation led by Presidents.

NOTICE.

JANESVILLE, WIS., Nov. 13th, 1888.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Janesville Machine Co., will be held in their office, in the city of Janesville, Wis., on Tuesday, December 4th, 1888, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing nine directors and transacting any other business that may properly come before them.

J. D. REXFORD, President.

COLIN C. MCLEAN, Secretary.

Call at Zeigler's and see the finest line of Prince Alberts ever exhibited in Janesville.

The most beautiful woman in New York takes Vinegar Bitters to clear her complexion.

THE VISITING DELEGATIONS.

Clinton and Milton Turn Out Four Hundred Strong.

At seven o'clock a special train from Clinton brought one hundred and fifty enthusiastic republicans from that village.

A delegation of about two hundred ladies and gentlemen from Milton Junction, including the Milton Cornet Band and Milton Glee Club, arrived by special train on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad about half past six o'clock. After waiting for some time the passengers, they formed in line and marched down Milwaukee street to the Myers house, into which the serenade was given to the distinguished guests occupying the balcony of the Myers house, the Milton band playing some very fine music. After a couple of pieces had been rendered by the band and three rounds of cheering had been given for "Harrison, Morton and Proctor," Ogden H. Palmer, Esq., appeared on the Main street balcony of the Myers house, and briefly introduced Hon. L. B. Caswell, our member of congress; cheers were given for Mr. Caswell with a will. Mr. Palmer then introduced Hon. Henry C. Payne, chairman of the republican state central committee, and Col. Geo. W. Burchard, of Jefferson county. Each of these gentlemen as introduced stepped forward and acknowledged the cheering of the spectators lining the sidewalk and streets. The Milton delegation then disbanded and later in the evening fell into line in the regular procession.

The Milton Cornet Band is a fine body of young men and one of the best bands organizations in Southern Wisconsin. The Gazette acknowledges their visit last evening with many thanks. The delegation returned home after the Jubilee reception at the risk.

IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.

L. C. Garcelon Assumes Charge of the Myers House.

All the improvements at the Myers House have been completed. The bath rooms and washrooms have been ready for some time, new gas and water service put throughout the house, and preparations made to heat the house by steam before another winter. The steam elevator is already in use, and has proved the one thing needed to make the Myers House one of the best hotels in the state.

The hotel is now under new management. Mr. L. C. Garcelon assumed charge this week. He is an old hotel man, who will be made welcome by Janesville people. He has been connected during the past few years with several of the leading hotels in the south and has been for the past year in charge of the Cliff House at Lake Bluff near Chicago. Quite a number of changes are to be made in and about the hotel but it is probable that little will be done until next week, Friday, on account of the W. C. T. U. convention.

On Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Madison it passed beside lines of lanterns that marked the residences of Charles Jutton, B. F. Crossett, Hirao Bump, J. A. Denniston, N. O. Clark, Dr. Henry Palmer, E. T. Photo, A. D. Nott, J. L. Ford and J. W. Nash.

Bluff street was well lighted, the more notable illuminations being those of John Fox, John Smith, C. L. Botsford, and C. F. Fuller.

CLIVELAND'S CONSOLIDATION, CONNECTICUT, SALT RIVER AND THE SOUTH.

South Jackson street was marked by some of the most elaborate decorations seen in the city. Among the houses that showed national colors were those of Mrs. S. Gowdy, Capt. William Macdon, W. M. Battle, A. E. Hall, J. G. Calkins, W. G. Palmer, W. B. Noyes, G. H. Osgood, Capt. A. M. Pratt, Frank Fife, Silas Haynes, W. M. Wright, Mrs. J. C. Cook, A. J. Ingalls, W. D. Huldebrandt and O. G. Ford. All of these were handily illuminated. A. M. Valentine showed heart of pine in the mottoes:

GRANDPA'S HAT GOT THERE.

On Jackson street the marching column were greeted with Roman candles and flambouys; while red light blazed on all sides. The residences of E. D. Tellman, L. H. Becker, George Woodward, Miss Mary Crosby, E. G. Fife, O. D. Howe, Capt. A. M. Pratt, Frank Fife, Silas Haynes, W. M. Wright, Mrs. J. C. Cook, A. J. Ingalls, W. D. Huldebrandt and O. G. Ford were all handily illuminated. A. M. Valentine showed heart of pine in the mottoes:

GRANDPA'S HAT GOT THERE.

On Jackson street the marching column were greeted with Roman candles and flambouys; while red light blazed on all sides. The residences of E. D. Tellman, L. H. Becker, George Woodward, Miss Mary Crosby, E. G. Fife, O. D. Howe, Capt. A. M. Pratt, Frank Fife, Silas Haynes, W. M. Wright, Mrs. J. C. Cook, A. J. Ingalls, W. D. Huldebrandt and O. G. Ford were all handily illuminated. A. M. Valentine showed heart of pine in the mottoes:

GRANDPA'S HAT GOT THERE.

On Jackson street the marching column were greeted with Roman candles and flambouys; while red light blazed on all sides. The residences of E. D. Tellman, L. H. Becker, George Woodward, Miss Mary Crosby, E. G. Fife, O. D. Howe, Capt. A. M. Pratt, Frank Fife, Silas Haynes,